HOSPITALITY AND CULINARY STUDIES
London, England and the School of Artisan Food

DATES
Application deadline: March 8, 2019
Deposit deadline: March 29, 2019
   ($200.00 deposit for selected participants)
Course dates: March 30, 2019 – June 20, 2020
Travel dates: May 26 – June 10, 2020 (approximately 10 nights/11 days)
Global Showcase: September 2020 – date TBD

Pre-departure and post-travel meetings, assignments, and presentations will occur during the course dates outlined above. Travel dates are approximate and may change based on airfare cost and availability closer to the time of booking.

COST
$3,400 (approximate)
Includes: airfare, lodging, classes at the School of Artisan Food, transportation in England, group tours, some meals, taxes/fees/gratuity, airport transfers, and insurance
Scholarships are available! Financial aid and loan money can be used to help fund participation in the program.

DESCRIPTION
Students will participate in culinary, baking and hospitality classes at the School of Artisan Food in England. Course study will focus on meal planning and preparation as the pilgrims would have done 400 years ago. Other activities include experiencing high tea, visiting a brewery and/or micro pub, sightseeing in London and in England, visiting food markets and seeing hotels and inns and comparing them to US establishments.

Participants in this program should be prepared to walk multiple miles per day and stand in food lab environments for multiple hours daily.

COURSE
Students selected for this experience will be enrolled in a one-credit education abroad course. The course will prepare students to be fully engaged in the global experience and international travel through pre-departure research, in-country reflection, and post travel assignments/presentations. Tuition and fees for this course are included in the cost listed above.

OTHER
- Minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA required.
- Priority consideration will be given to hospitality and culinary students. Other individuals will be given secondary consideration as space allows.
- A passport is required for all international travel and is also required to secure travel arrangements. Please ensure you have a valid passport as soon as possible. More information can be found at http://travel.state.gov/passport.

FOR MORE INFORMATION
Chef Jack Birren  JBirren@wctc.edu  262.691.5590
Karen Kumm  KKumm@wctc.edu  414.333.6334
Melody Reichoff  Global@wctc.edu  262.691.5209

Apply at www.wctc.edu/global for this unique Education Abroad experience!